ABOUT THE DRUPAL DEV DAYS

Drupal Developer Days (DDD) are an annual European event, organized by the Drupal community, that brings together people from around the world who use, develop, design and support the Drupal platform.

This year the event is in Lisbon at ISCTE-IUL University.

Expect a week of dozens of sprints, workshops, sessions & panels from some of Drupal's main contributors to level up your skills and learn about the latest in the Drupal community, and plenty of social activities to connect with fellow devs.

DRUPAL DEV DAYS LISBON 2018

FOR ASPIRERS, BEGINNERS & EXPERTS ALIKE

Whether you're just starting out or trying to take Drupal development to the next level, DDD are targeted at a wide range of skills sets.

Anyone interested can chip in to write code for new features, fix bugs for core or contrib modules or design module interfaces. Use this opportunity to evaluate, exchange knowledge and progress.

However, this doesn't mean you have to be a developer to attend. You can be a designer looking to improve the user experience or someone who likes to write documentation. In the true spirit of the Drupal community, DDD are for everyone who is excited about learning and sharing their knowledge with other Drupal professionals, contributing and improving the Drupal platform.

A BIT OF HISTORY

DDD was held for the first time in Munich back in 2010, since then travels to a different city every year:

THE CONFERENCE AGENDA

Drupal Dev Days will be held in Lisbon from 2nd to 6th July 2018, every day from 9am to 6pm at ISCTE.

Sessions

Several tracks of presentations focused on Drupal, PHP and web development . As with other Drupal community events, the focus of Drupal Dev Days is on sharing experiences with other attendees, eager to learn about the latest tricks, best practices, tools, and whatever can take the Drupal Developer skills and productivity to the next level.

Sprints

Another sharing opportunity that community events offer to Drupal people is the chance to help move the project forward along with peers and colleagues for long, fun days. They will be mentored by experienced developers who will offer helpful insights to beginners.

Remember: sprints are not only for Drupal coders! There are issues for every skill set and experience level! There are a lot of ways of contributing.

THE VENUE

The upcoming DDD edition will be held from 2 - 6 July 2018, in Lisbon, Portugal, at ISCTE-IUL University, a public university established in 1972, dedicated to teaching, research and community service activities.

The strategic objectives of ISCTE-IUL are: innovation, quality, internationalization and development of an entrepreneurial culture.

BECOME A SPONSOR

As a community event Drupal Developer Days can't happen without sponsors. With a sponsorship package you directly support the research and development of Drupal.

Sponsoring will also empower your company brand within the international audience and show your love and commitment to Drupal as a platform and community.

With hundreds of developers coming to Lisbon, service providers can access their target groups while companies can create awareness with potential new hires.

Don't wait, become a sponsor and be recognized as a top Drupal brand!
